Three Semester Hours

Instructor: Shelly Matthews

Prerequisites: NETE 60003: Interpreting the New Testament, or Equivalent

Description of Content: This course will undertake a thorough study of the two volume work, Luke-Acts.

Class Procedures:
Lectures, discussion, in-class exercises and student presentations

Requirements:
NETE 65013

1. Attendance and informed participation in the class sessions (which might include short reflection papers, in class writing, discussion questions, etc.)
2. One in-class presentation, related to course reading
3. Two 6 – 8 page exegesis papers, one on a passage from Luke, one on a passage from Acts.
4. Occasional pop quizzes to facilitate careful reading of weekly assignments
5. Final exam. (Which will take the form of three take-home essay questions, reflecting broadly on the themes of the course)

NETE 65033 (in addition to requirements 1 – 4 above)
6. Must commit to one hour of supplemental Greek reading
7. Must utilize Greek language and Greek language tools in their exegesis papers.

NETE 85013

All of the requirements above, with the following modification: exegesis papers must be 9 – 12 pages in length.

Texts:

Recommended:

We will be reading the commentaries on Luke and Acts from each of the following readers. Students may wish to purchase one or more of these books for their libraries.

Grading Procedures:

NETE 65013

1. Attendance and informed participation in the class sessions (which might include short reflection papers, in class writing, discussion questions, etc.) 10%
2. One in-class presentation, related to course reading 10%
3. Two 6 – 8 page exegesis papers, one on a passage from Luke, one on a passage from Acts. 25% each 50% total
4. Occasional pop quizzes to facilitate careful reading of weekly assignments 10%
5. Final exam. (Which will take the form of three take-home essay questions, reflecting broadly on the themes of the course) 20%