NETE 70013 Basics of Biblical Greek
(3 semester hours)

Instructor: Kendi Mohn (kendra.mohn@tcu.edu)

Prerequisites: None.

Description of Content:

In this course, students will receive a graduate-level introduction to the grammar and vocabulary of Biblical Greek. Class time will include lecture, discussion, and weekly review of exercises focusing on grammar. Outside of class, students will perform translation exercises and work to build vocabulary. As the course progresses, students will read selected verses from the Greek New Testament and Septuagint in order to practice their skills and demonstrate their knowledge.

Class Procedures:
Lecture, discussion, and review of translation assignments. Four exams will be given during the course of the term.

Requirements:
1. Attendance and informed participation in every class session.
2. Regular preparation of translation assignments.
3. Exams: 4 Exams (100 Points Each).

Required Texts:

Recommended Text:

Grading procedures:
There will be four exams during the semester. Each exam will be worth 100 points, with 400 total points possible. The student’s lowest exam grade will be dropped, and the highest exam grade will be doubled.

Translation exercises assigned for each class are an integral part of this course. Failure to complete homework assignments will reduce the overall grade.