Instructor: Shelly Matthews

Prerequisites: Entrance into the Brite BIIN Advanced Program

Description of Content: An exegesis course devoted to I Corinthians. Special foci include the question of class and status at Corinth, the phenomenon of spirit possession; slavery; and gender.

Class Procedures: The course will operate as a seminar, with discussion of course readings along with student presentations.

Requirements:
1) Attendance and participation (including occasional small writing assignments if necessary to facilitate such participation)
2) Class presentation
3) Final paper (15-25 pages)

Books:

Grading Procedures:
(The following are examples only)
Class Participation: 30%
Critical Response Papers: 40%
Research Paper: 30%