Located near the largest Marine base, Camp Lejeune, Trinity United Methodist Church of Jacksonville, North Carolina, is seeking a full-time Director of Youth Ministries. This worshipping congregation of 300 is like joining a warm, caring family who takes care of each other as well as the military and local families in their community. Trinity is mission minded and has an effective outreach to all of Jacksonville and Onslow County. The Trinity youth program is blessed to have longtime volunteers, high value on missions and service, and youth with spiritual depth who are close to each other. The Director of Youth Ministries will be handling the daily operation of the ministry and Sunday school for youth in a way to implement effective ministry.

The primary responsibilities include following:
- Building relationships with students, families, and volunteers
- Recruiting and equipping volunteers
- Develop programs and systems for sustainable youth ministry

The successful candidate should have a Bachelor's degree, three or more years of experience, be strong in relationship building, communication, and ministering to youth, parents, and volunteers, and have beliefs aligned with the United Methodist Church. Interested candidates may submit a cover letter and a resume to Teresa Sippel at teresa.sippel@ministryarchitects.com.
