

Seven Literacies for Responsible Christians

Saturday, September 26, 2015
9:00 a.m. to 1:45 p.m.
Northway Christian Church, Dallas

There are many perplexing questions in our contemporary world that the teachings of Jesus do not mention. In this sense, Jesus' teachings are more about questions than answers; questions such as who the hungry, the thirsty, the strangers, the naked, the sick, and the imprisoned are today. Religion is about responsibility and being responsible for the others and the world requires knowing critical issues that matter in the contemporary world. Seven Literacies are for this responsible knowing in search of living-well-together, of the messianic Kingdom of God.
