

CLERGY TAXES?

WHO:

The Lilly Endowment
Project on Financial Well-Being and the Brite Student Association

presents

Martha L. Johnson

WHERE:

Moore Building,
Room 209

WHEN:

March 27th;
During Coffee Hour
11:30am-12:45pm

Topic for Session:

Don't want to end up like Capone?! Come learn a brief introduction on the ins and outs of clergy taxes and avoid at least one of Capone's downfalls.

Short Biography for

Martha L. Johnson:

Martha L. Johnson has been an attorney since 1994 and a Mediator since 2007. She is a graduate of Drake University and Drake Law School and the SMU Alternative Dispute Resolution program. Also, she has kept current on federal tax laws and regulations as they apply to ministers for the last 25 plus years. In addition to being an active member of Midway Hills Christian Church in Dallas, she has also devoted a portion of her time every year to helping newly ordained ministers with their federal and state income taxes.