A Visit to the Ancestors: Some Characters in the Christian Story and our Stories

Saturday, October 22, 2016
9:00 a.m. to 1:45 p.m.
Northway Christian Church, Dallas

The study of history is a spiritual discipline. It is a visit to people we may think we know, but usually do not fully understand. As we reconstruct their stories, we find ourselves weaving our own stories into theirs. Holding up the mirror of the ancestors, we may gain wisdom for living our own lives. This workshop will focus on four interesting ancestors you may not know very well: Augustine of Hippo (d. 430); Hildegard of Bingen (d. 1179); Mother Walatta Petros of Ethiopia (d. 1642); and Kanzo Uchimura of Japan (d. 1930). These ancestors illuminate different kinds of Christianity and different approaches to Christian life.
