

CHHI 70023: The Church in the Midst of Pluralism:
Christian Missions in the Modern Era
3 hours

Instructor: Timothy S. Lee

Prerequisites: None

Description of Content: The course explores modern, chiefly twentieth-Century, thoughts and practices related to Christian missions.

Class Procedures:

Seminar format: discussion, student presentations, audio-visual presentations

Requirements (tentative)

1. Attendance and informed participation in the class sessions
2. Weekly in-class presentations
3. Reflection paper
4. Term paper (18-20 pages)

Texts*

David J. Bosch. Transforming Mission: Paradigm Shifts in Theology of Mission, 20th Anniversary Edition. New York: Orbis, 2011. ISBN-10: 1570759480. $35.00.

Thomas, Norman E., ed. Classic Texts in Mission & World Christianity. New York: Orbis, 1995. ISBN-10: 1570750068. $34.00.

Wallis, Andrew F. The Missionary Movement in Christian History: Studies in the Transmission of Faith. New York: Orbis, 1996. ISBN-10: 1570750599. $26.00.

*If additional texts are required, students will be notified in due time.

Grading Procedures (tentative):

Class cooperation: 10%

In-class presentation: 40%

Reflection paper: 15%

Research paper: 35%