Our Mission

The mission of Northside Baptist Church is to celebrate God's grace and follow the movement of the Holy Spirit, allowing any person, without exception, who professes Jesus as Lord, to participate in any capacity with this fellowship.

We proclaim through worship and missions the good news that God is loving and forgiving.

We care through a fellowship of loving, mutually supportive believers who will strengthen each other and will help each other achieve Christian maturity.

We share our faith and resources through witness to others by example and deed.

We grow through our worship, Christian education, and witness by encouraging others to participate in a spirit of openness, allowing people to raise their awareness of human needs through a greater understanding of the grace and love of God
