

Royal Lane Baptist Church (Dallas, TX) is a Diverse People United in Christ. We seek a full-time Pastor who has the spiritual depth, skills, and experience needed to inspire, lead, and unify our multigenerational and multiracial congregation. Royal Lane is a mosaic of welcoming and affirming Christians who are attempting to discover, express, and embody the meaning of Gospel in the world. We are affiliated with the Alliance of Baptists and Fellowship Southwest, and commit ourselves to meaningful worship, freedom of thought, and racial/social justice. Our pastor will share the inclusive values of Royal Lane, will be a gifted preacher who draws on theological scholarship from many perspectives and personal insight, will have experience leading and working cooperatively with organizational leadership, will have a personality which is welcoming and approachable, will have a commitment to pastoral care, and will exhibit a high level of emotional maturity and understanding of group dynamics. A Master of Divinity or higher degree from an accredited theological seminary is required.

You can find more details about the position and the church on our website, or through our Facebook page. To apply, send an email to pastorsearch@royallane.org with a resume and cover letter.